Anger Signals

Date: Name: Physician's Name: Instructions: Think of the times when you were angry. Which signs or signals do you notice when you're angry?
 ☐ Heart racing or pounding ☐ Feeling a tightness in your chest ☐ Sweating ☐ Trembling or shaking ☐ Clenched jaw or fist ☐ Breathing fast ☐ Headache ☐ Dizziness ☐ Upset stomach or stomach in knots ☐ Stiff or tense muscles ☐ A furrowed brow, frowning, or scowling Are there any other anger signs that	 □ Flushed or skin turning red □ Increased volume of voice or yelling □ Faster speech □ Teeth grinding □ Feeling hot in the face or the neck □ Need to walk around or pace □ Has difficulty concentrating □ Pounding, banging, or slamming of things □ Feel like you want to escape the situation □ Feel guilty 	Feel sad or depressed Feel resentful or rejected Feel insecure Feel jealous Feel humiliated Feel anxious Thinking of revenge by teaching them a lesson or hurting the source of anger Being more sarcastic Acting in a more abrasive manner Craving substances, alcohol, or a cigarette to help calm you down