Bunnell Littler Test

Name:	Date:
The Bunnell Littler Test is a simple and quick strength of the tendons in the fingers.	physical examination that evaluates the integrity and Instructions
<ol> <li>Hold the metacarpophalangeal (MCP) joint</li> <li>Passively flex the proximal interphalangeal</li> <li>Repeat the test with the MCP joint flexed.</li> <li>Compare motion between the two tests:</li> </ol>	·
<ul> <li>If no change in motion, capsular restricti</li> <li>If motion increases with the MCP joint flo</li> </ul>	ion at the PIP joint is implicated. exed, lumbrical muscle tightness is implicated.
Findings
Additional Notes	