Tips to establish healthy boundaries in your marriage

- Communication: Discuss your preferred communication styles and boundaries, such as when and how to bring up sensitive topics and handle disagreements.
- Emotional needs: Share your emotional needs and what types of support you expect from one another.
- Family relationships: Set boundaries regarding your involvement with each other's families, including frequency of visits, holidays, and decision-making.
- Friends and social life: Discuss the role of friends in your lives, expectations for socializing together and separately, and any concerns about specific relationships.
- Financial management: Establish financial management guidelines, including budgeting, saving, and making major financial decisions.
- Privacy and personal space: Determine your individual needs for privacy and personal space, such as time alone, personal hobbies, and sharing of personal information.
- Intimacy and sexuality: Discuss your expectations for intimacy and sexuality, including frequency, preferences, and any boundaries you want to set.
- Conflict resolution: Establish guidelines for resolving conflicts healthily and respectfully, such as taking breaks, using "I" statements, and seeking professional help.
- Parenting (if applicable): If you have or plan to have children, discuss your parenting styles, values, and expectations for involvement and decision-making.
- Work and career: Talk about your career goals, work-life balance, and how you will support each other's professional growth.

Once you have completed the worksheet, revisit it periodically to ensure that your boundaries remain healthy and up to date as your relationship evolves.
