

Self Reflection Journal

Name	Entry Date:
Gratitude: Write down three things you are grateful for today. It could be anything from the people in your life to the opportunities you have.
1.
2.
3.
Achievements: List three things you accomplished today or in the recent past. Reflect on how these achievements made you feel and why they are important to you.
1.
2.
3.
Challenges: Identify one or two challenges you encountered today or recently. Describe the challenges and your initial response to them. Consider what you can learn from these challenges.
1.
2.
3.
Emotions: Reflect on your current emotional state. How are you feeling today? Explore the reasons behind your emotions and any patterns you notice.

Self-Care: Write about one thing you did today or in the past week to take care of yourself. It could be a small act of self-care or a significant self-care practice.

Lessons Learned: Reflect on a valuable lesson you learned recently. Describe the experience and how it has impacted you. Consider how you can apply this lesson to your life moving forward.

Goals: Write down three goals you want to focus on or achieve. These can be short-term or long-term goals. Consider why these goals are important to you and what steps you can take to work towards them.

1.

2.

3.

Self-Reflection: Take some time to reflect on your overall progress and growth. Consider areas where you have seen improvement and areas where you would like to make further progress. Write down any insights or realizations you have about yourself.

Gratitude (Again): End your journal entry by expressing gratitude for three additional things in your life. This will help cultivate a positive mindset and reinforce the habit of gratitude.

1.

2.

3.

Additional notes